“MAJOR LEAGUE ENGLISH FOR INTERPRETERS”

WHO: EIPA and BEI Written Test Candidates

WHEN: June 24, 2010 (Thursday); 9:00 AM-3:00 PM (Registration at 8:30 AM.)

WHERE: Victor Building, 201 N. Washington Sq., Lansing, MI 48913

(Come to third floor conference rooms A & B.)

PRESENTERS: Nancy Mosher & Sandy Heller

Sandra Heller is an expert at analyzing English Language Arts (ELA). Throughout her 33 years of teaching students who are Deaf/Hard of Hearing, she has studied, analyzed, and taught ELA. During Sandra's exemplary teaching career, she has pursued a quest for crucial strategies to assist with development of ELA competencies! Her passion for teaching ELA will be evident in this workshop as she shares strategies that work!

Nancy Mosher has been a teacher of Deaf/Hard of Hearing (DHH) students, a school and community interpreter, a college instructor, and a supervisor of a DHH program. During the span of her 41 years, she has researched linguistics, English syntax and reading as well as the linguistics and syntax of American Sign Language. This workshop provides the opportunity for participants to fill in the gaps of their linguistic competency.
