

CAC

Communication Access Center

for the Deaf & Hard of Hearing

Present

NIC Nuggets:

What you need to know about the National Interpreter Certification test

Presented by: Linda Ross, Sarah McKinney, Ben Hall

This session will provide a look at the new National Interpreter Certification from the perspectives of three individuals who have valuable experience: one who was a Content Expert for the test development, one who has passed the written portion, and one who was involved with the National Council on Interpreting, the joint NAD/RID committee that worked on developing the test, and has passed the interview and performance portion.

Please Send Registration to:
Communication Access Center
Attn: Helen Boucher
1505 W. Court
Flint, MI 48503

January 27th, 2007
9:00am to 4:30
.6 RID CEU's (PS)
6 QA units
Cost:$50.00

Current CAC Contractors: $35.00
Make checks payable to CACDHH
Seating is limited.
Registration closes 1/15/07

Mott Community College
1401 East Court St.
Flint, MI 48503
Regional Technical Center
Auditorium

Doors will open at 8:15am

Presenters

Sarah McKinney, M.A.

Has worked full time as an educational interpreter since 2002. Sarah earned her "Master of Arts in Interpreting" degree from Gallaudet University in 2002. She also holds the Ohio Department of Education Associate: "Interpreter for Hearing Impaired License" and is an associate member of the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf. Sarah has earned a B.A. degree in Speech and Hearing Science from the Ohio State University and a Deaf Studies Certificate from the Columbus State Community College.

Ben Hall, CSC, Prov SC:L

Served 13 years on the National Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf (RID) Board of Director, five years as Region III Representative, four years as Vice-President, and four years as President. Ben is a member of the national RID – NAD National Council on Interpreting (NCI) which developed the new NAD-RID National Interpreter Certification (NIC) and new joint Code of Professional Standards. Ben is also a member of the newly formed Commission of Collegiate Interpreter Educators.

Linda Ross, PhD, CI, CT

Has been involved in the field of interpreting in numerous capacities for more than 18 years. Linda has worked as a freelance interpreter, interpreter coordinator and interpreter educator during her career. She is currently the Founding Associate of Hallenross and Associates, LLC, a sign language interpretation and professional development company.

Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____ E-mail Address _____

LUNCH INCLUDED (Will you be staying? Yes ___No___)

Please list any special accommodations you may need

Tactile Interpreting Interpreters Other (please list)

CANCELLATION: 50% refund will be returned if canceled before Jan. 15th, 2007 Cancellations after Jan. 15th are Non-Refundable