Rebecca obtained her A.A. and B.A. in Business and Office Administration from Anderson University, Anderson, Ind. She has been engaged in community interpreting for the last 15 years and holds her national certification, RID CI/CT, IIC. In addition to interpreting credentials, Rebecca is also a Myers Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI) Certified Practitioner, having gone through extensive training on the implementation and application of MBTI. Rebecca currently works for Sorenson Communications in their Professional Development Department and freelances with local interpreting agencies. Aside from interpreting, Rebecca mentors interpreters in several different areas, including VRS and community interpreting, as well as students in their ITP practicum. Serving on a local ITP's Advisory Board, teaching as an adjunct professor at a northern Ind. ITP and having the pleasure of serving on the Board of Interpreting Standards are also among her professional commitments and passions. Rebecca resides in Anderson, Ind., with her wonderful husband and four beautiful daughters.
