The Educational Interpreter Performance Assessment (EIPA) has 38 skill areas that are assessed and rated. During this workshop, each skill area will be discussed in depth with examples given for each. Participants will be given the opportunity to practice these skill areas, view model interpretations and then discuss the experience. The presenter will share suggested resources and ideas for professional development activities that focus on each skill domain. The presenter will also discuss the testing experience from application to test completion. This workshop is geared for all working interpreters and students who are interested in learning about and/or taking the EIPA. This workshop promises to be an informative, safe and fun experience!

Cindy Farnham, Master Mentor, CI, CT, EIPA 5, is a freelance interpreter, mentor and trainer. She has been formally mentoring educational interpreters for 10 years, with a specific focus on the skill domains evaluated by the EIPA. Cindy also has a private mentoring practice assisting interpreters pursuing certification and training other interpreters to become professional mentors. She serves as the Vice President of the Conference of Interpreter Trainers.
