

SIGN LANGUAGE SERVICES OF MICHIGAN

PRESENTS:

KEITH WANN

You've seen him on YouTube.com. You've laughed until you cried while watching him perform, "Ice Ice Baby". Now, see him in person!

TICKETS ON SALE NOW!!

Keith Wann is coming back to Michigan!

February 23, 2008

Family Matinee show
2pm

Evening, PG13 show
7pm

At: The Imperial House
34701 Groesbeck Hwy.
Clinton Twp. MI 48035

Keith Wann is an acclaimed American Sign Language performing artist who has been captivating and entertaining Deaf, Hard of Hearing, and Hearing audiences for years.

As a Child of Deaf Adults (CODA), he has traveled the nation amusing audiences with his controlled chaos and pandemonium explosions on stage. Wann brilliantly managed to transform himself into what many call one of the funniest Sign-Language comics in America.

Come and enjoy a night of storytelling and CODA-DEAF Culture.

Laugh with Keith as he takes you on a hilarious "visual" journey to describe his childhood experiences. Come learn about the Deaf and Hearing Worlds and how they often clash with the help of a mischievous child of deaf adults. Born hearing to Deaf parents, Keith grew up living in both the hearing and Deaf worlds, and has been able to create unique perspectives on the ways of both worlds. This has evolved into a one-man show, "Watching Two Worlds Collide".