

Come to a Special Workshop on

Deaf Native American Culture Sign Language & Interpreting

sponsored by

The American Sign Language Teacher's Association of Michigan (ASLTA)

Friday, April 30 and Saturday, May 1, 2010
Mott Community College in Flint, MI - in the RTC Building

Join us on Friday, April 30th from 6:00 – 9:00 p.m. for a welcoming ceremony, workshop and potluck to honor presenters, Mark “White Buffalo” Azure and Teresa Norris from the Intertribal Deaf Council (IDC), now called, “Sacred Circle”. Mark and Teresa will discuss the origins of Native American signs and its influence on ASL today. Their talk will also include information about communication access for Deaf Native people. Mark will also explore how traditional Native ceremonies can be made accessible.

Opening Ceremony & Potluck Dinner:

Opening Ceremony is Friday, April 30, 2010 at 6pm in the RTC Building.

It is a Native tradition to welcome honored guests with a potluck dinner after a teaching. We will follow this tradition Friday night. There is a $15.00 entrance fee (for Friday night only), so please bring $15 plus a delicious, dish to share. (Saturday there will be vendors to purchase lunch on your own.)
