Interpreter Professionalism Series

Are you an Interpreter who has entered the "Real World" of interpreting and found that you have many questions about what you should do; on assignments, before assignments and after assignments? This series will discuss issues related to professionalism and your job as an Interpreter. How do you approach your team interpreter or the deaf person with an issue? How does the Code of Ethics apply in different situations? How do you network effectively?

Series Dates and Topics: You do not have to sign up for all sessions.

January 20, 2007...10am to 12pm.... What is expected in different types of Interpreting situations. We will discuss what is expected of an interpreter in different areas of interpreting such as Mental Health, Medical, Legal and so on. We will also discuss problems that may arise and how to deal with them, or prevent them from happening in the first place.

February 17, 2007...10am to 12pm....The Code of Ethics, what does it really mean? General business ethics and practices as it applies to interpreters. We will discuss how the Code of Ethics applies in the different areas of Interpreting. We will discuss general business practices such as invoicing, collections and contracts.

March 17, 2007...10am to 12pm....Effective Networking. How do you network? Why is it important? Where do you go to network? How do you approach someone you don't know? How do you approach fellow community members for help? How do you make yourself unforgettable?
